PRESIDENT RUSHES AMERICAN WARSHIPS TO FRIGHTEEN TURKEY.

Squadron Consisting of the Olympia, Cleveland and Baltimore Is Ordered to Smyrna to Enforce Demands of the United States Against Sultan.

Equal Rights for Americans in Turkey, Freedom from Interference with Our Educational or Religious Establishments and Cash Indemnity Demanded.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The European squadron, under Rear-Admiral Jewell, was ordered to cruise in Turkish waters today to force the demands of the United States on the Sultan. It is apparent that diplomatic negotiations have failed and nothing but a display of force will bring the Sultan to a realization of the fact that the United States means business.

Rear-Admiral Jewell's squadron consists of three vessels, the cruisers Cleveland, Olympia and Baltimore. The squadron has been at Villefranche, awaiting orders for just this emergency, and has probably already departed on its mission.

The administration took this drastic step to impress the Sultan only after United States Minister Leishman at Constantinople had reported that his attempts to get any pledges from the Sultan by peaceful conferences had utterly failed.

It is hoped that the arrival of the three splendid cruisers flying the Stars and Stripes in Turkish waters will awaken Constanti-

HIGHLANDERS SECOND GAME WITH CLEVELAND

Game Was Close Up to the Sixth, and Chesbro Had Pitched Great Ball, Having Seven Strike-Outs to His Credit.

(Special to The Evening World.) CLEVELAND, Aug. 6.—Manager Armour was in a quandary as to whom he should use in the box against the Highlanders this afternoon. Jones, whose turn it was to pitch, has not been doing well of late.

The attendance this afternoon was not up to the usual Saturday crowd, owing to the poor showing of the local team recently. The Highlanders pulled off some sizzling stunts in practice, and promised to continue their performance of making the Cleveland infield look like counterfeit money.

First Inning.
Dougherty fanned. Brad's speedy throw beat Keefer. Billy also whipped out Elberfeld. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.
Hickman muffed Williams's fly and Lajoie caught the ball as it bounded out of Hick's hands, a play seen about once in a thousand years. Gansel singled. Felt sacrificed. Jones to Hickman. On Conroy's single Gansel was out at the plate. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.
McGuire doubled. Larry threw out. Dougherty fanned. Lush, whose throw held McGuire at third, Keeler scratch-singled, scoring McGuire. Keeler was out stealing. Buelow to Larry. ONE RUN.

Fourth Inning.
Gansel handled Buelow's hard smash. Jones out. Williams to Gansel. Billy beat a roller and took second on Chesbro's wild throw. Felt line to Jones. NO RUNS.

KEENE $55,000 WINNER ON TWO SARATOGA RACES

Delhi's Great Republic Victory Brings Jockey Club's Vice-President $42,000, and Sysonby's Easy Defeat of Hot Shot and Britisher in Saratoga Special Adds $13,000.

WATERBOY PULLS UP LAME AFTER RUNNING BADLY IN STAKE.

Two Feature Events Draw Big Crowd to the Beautiful Course, Thousands of Out of Town Visitors Being on Hand—Plungers Have Big Day and Business Is Brisk.

THE WINNERS.

FIRST RACE—Old England (4 to 1), Monte Carlo (6 to 1), Dick Bernard 3.

SECOND RACE—Amur (30 to 1), Ten Candles (12 to 1), St. Jude 3.

THIRD RACE—Sysonby (1 to 20), Hot Shot (20 to 1), Britisher 3.

FOURTH RACE—Delhi (8 to 1), Mercury (2 to 1), The Picket 3.

FIFTH RACE—Naughty Lady (6 to 1), Court Maid (16 to 5), Fire Eater 3.

SIXTH RACE—Fort Hunter (3 to 1), Graziallo (3 to 1), Cleveland 3.

SARATOGA RACE TRACK, Aug. 6.—James R. Keene won the Saratoga Special with Sysonby and the Great Republic stakes with Delhi here to-day. The net value of the Special was $13,000, and that of the Great Republic $42,000, so that Mr. Keene was exactly $55,000 winner on the afternoon. Rather a profitable day's sport for the Vice-Chairman of the Jockey Club.

The victory of Delhi was a surprise to most people, but the victory of Sysonby was anticipated. Delhi won the Great Republic just as Lord of the Vale won the Saratoga Handicap last Monday. He went to the front in matchless style and, sweeping along with a wonderful stride, opened up a gap that gave him a great advantage over the others, and they were never able to catch him.

Old England Wins First.
There were three choices in the opening event. They were Old England, Dick Bernard and W. R. Condon. The latter were evenly divided and there was no plunging. Old England went to the front at the start, followed by Monte Carlo, Witcheater and W. R. Condon. They held this order of stretch, where Old England came away and won cleverly by two and a half lengths from Monte Carlo, who beat Dick Bernard a length.

Steeplechase Was a Farc.
The steeplechase, though it included some of the best jumpers in training, was a farce. Amur, a 30 to 1 chance, won. He was evenly divided and there was no plunging. Old England went to the front at the start, followed by Monte Carlo, Witcheater and W. R. Condon. They held this order of stretch, where Old England came away and won cleverly by two and a half lengths from Monte Carlo, who beat Dick Bernard a length.

Only One More Running.
It is a pity that horsemen do not take to the Great Republic. The stake, it is said, will cost $20,000 next year, and it has been decided to discontinue it altogether.

All Backed in Big Race.
The stable consisting of Mercury and Acrel were the favorites in the Great Republic. The opening price of 2 to 1 was eagerly taken and they were backed down to 2 to 1. Waterboy was backed, and so was The Picket. Delhi had some backing and so did Grey Friar. It was an open race so far as the betting ring was concerned. Mr. Thomas wanted to see his colts in the race and he added St. Valentine.

Naughty Lady Is Fast.
Naughty Lady and Phantom made the running to the stretch, where Phantom stopped and Naughty Lady went on alone, finishing six lengths in front of Court Maid, who beat Fire Eater a length.

Fort Hunter Eased Up.
Fort Hunter made all the running and won easily by two and a half lengths from Graziallo, who was three lengths before Cleveland.

Track Dry and Fast.
It was a matter of surprise that the track should have been fast and dry today, because there were heavy showers last night. Racemasters confidently
